Principal Billy McBride announced that the senior high quiz bowl had placed second in the regional and qualified for state and the junior and senior high choir had competed in a contest at Jonesboro and received excellent ratings. McBride also announced that the high school baseball team recently won the Big Cat Classic at Yellville and, in the IZARD County Invitational Pee Wee Tournament, the sixth grade girls won the championship in their division and the fifth and sixth grade boys teams were both runner-up.

Assistant Principal David Harmon congratulated the senior boys basketball team for winning the state championship and announced the following senior boys team honors: Justus Cooper named to the All Arkansas Team and State Tournament MVP; Cooper, Caleb Faulkner, and Coby Everett – All State Tournament Team; Cooper and Faulkner – All State; Cooper, Faulkner, Everett, and Dylan Tharp – All Regional; Cooper, Faulkner, Everett, Tharp, and Mike Uecker – All Conference. Also named All Conference, Bethany Simmons in senior girls; Allison Newman and Ava Lewis in junior girls; and Gunner Gleghorn, Denton Reiley, and Landon McBride in junior boys. In addition, Maura Thomason was named to the All Regional girls team.

Superintendent Fred Walker announced that the school show team had competed at an Arkansas Junior Cattleman's Association Show recently and that Payton Hutchins, Maddie Tanner, and Addie Tanner performed well. Walker also announced that the high school livestock team was hosting a hog show March 29.

Mike McCandlis made a motion, seconded by Debbie Moody, to adjourn at 7:48 p.m. Motion passed, 5-0.
